FERRIS HIGH CLASS OF 1968 REUNION

Welcome to the Sheraton Hotel, the scene of our ten-year class reunion. It was ten years ago that we started to bridge the gap from teenager to adult. It is tradition, mixed with interest, curiosity, wonder, and concern, that this ten-year reunion has been called. We wish that every member of our class could have been here, but distance, time and the cost of travel have kept many of our friends from attending.

This booklet contains a brief outline of what everyone has been up to during the last ten years. Again, we were unable to locate and/or receive a response from everyone, but all names have been included in the booklet.

To those of you that traveled from out of town, we hope that the travel to and from Spokane was safe and enjoyable.

If we may offer a word of note: Time changes all things and most people. Most of us have changed in many ways over the last ten years. Goals, ideas, survival, changes in society, interests, abilities, opportunities — are all areas of flexibility and change. The ability to change and to accept change in yourself and others is an admirable trait. May we all have a fun and interesting ten-year reunion.

IN MEMORIAM

Oftentimes we hear people say, when someone young has died, that "he passed before his time." Well, death is something that we should think of as a gate, a passageway, an opening to another way of "being." Only the Lord knows when each of "our time" has come, and then He calls us to be with Him. The Lord has reached out and called our friends to be with Him sooner than the rest of us. Our prayers are with them always.
